

Personal Support Worker

What does the job entail?

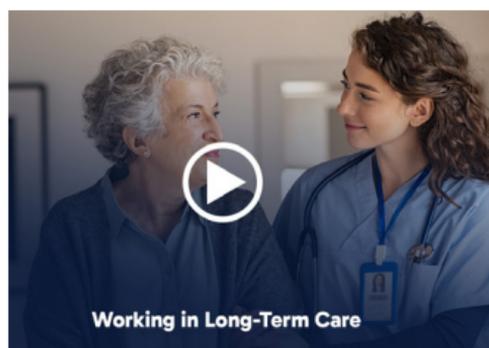

The Personal Support Worker is responsible to function under the supervision of the Director, Resident Care, Associate Director Resident Care and Registered Nursing staff by assisting residents to meet their emotional, social, cultural, spiritual and physical needs. As a valued member of Long-Term Care and Seniors Services, the Personal Support Worker demonstrates a commitment to resident safety by providing quality care in accordance with the organization's mission and vision.

Education/Certification/Experience

- Completion of (or currently enrolled in) the Personal Support Worker Certification program as per the requirements of the Long Term Care Homes Act and Regulations as outlined below:
 - The vocational standards established by the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities, as well as the standards established by the National Association of Career Colleges, or Ontario Community Support Association
 - Must be a minimum of 600 hours in duration, counting both class time and practical experience time
- Criminal Records Check with Vulnerable Sector Screening that is less than six (6) months old at the time of hire

Hear from our staff

Scan to learn more about working in long-term care for the County of Simcoe!

How to apply

Visit our 'current job postings' page to apply. Once you've found the job posting for this position, you will need to create an account to submit your application.

1. Scan the QR code below or visit <https://simcoe.ca/hr> and click on 'current job postings'
2. Click the title of the job you're interested in and scroll down to the bottom of the page. Click on 'apply to this job'
3. As a first-time user, you'll need to click on 'create new account' and submit your application by completing the required information and uploading your resume. There will also be a series of screening questions during the application process. Returning Users can log in to apply with the user email and password that was used to create a profile

YOUR NEXT CAREER STARTS HERE

apply now!

simcoe.ca/hr